

HomeServices Lending is pleased to announce that Brian Stephens and Wendi Gary have joined the firm as home mortgage consultants and will be aligned with the Prudential Georgia Realty team.

Brian Stephens has more than a dozen years of experience in mortgage lending. Having worked in origination and sales management, Brian's current focus is in the new construction and renovation sectors. Most recently, Brian was a renovation specialist with Wells Fargo Home Mortgage, and he will continue his renovation specialty with HomeServices Lending. Brian plans to meet with all of the Prudential agents and will be reaching out to the leadership team to schedule branch visits. Brian can be reached at 770-833-2472.

Wendi Gary joins HomeServices Lending with over twenty years of mortgage experience. She comes to us most recently from PNC, following a long and successful tenure with BB&T. Wendi brings a commitment to exceptional service to her Realtor partners and customers. She remains committed to purchase lending and has consistently delivered multi-million dollar closings on a monthly basis. Wendi will focus on the East Cobb and Cobb Roswell offices and can be reached at 770-318-2597.

HomeServices Lending vice president Mark McGoldrick said, "We are so proud to have two people of the caliber of Brian and Wendi joining HomeServices Lending as our first two employees focused on the Prudential Georgia agents. They are indicative of the quality mortgage consultants we have on our team and will set the bar high for their future teammates."

HomeServices Lending is a well-established lender and a leader in the mortgage industry. It is ranked in the top 25 lenders nationwide for purchase volume¹, and is a top 20 FHA/VA Lender². It is a joint venture between Wells Fargo Ventures, LLC, and HomeServices of America, Inc., a Berkshire Hathaway Affiliate.

Please join us in welcoming Brian Stephens and Wendi Gary.
