Kathy Connelly Honored with Third
Distinguished Service Award from Worldwide ERC®

Kathy Connelly, SVP of Corporate Services, Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Georgia Properties has earned a third Distinguished Service Award from Worldwide ERC®, the workforce mobility association. The award was announced at the Americas Mobility Conference, Worldwide ERC® held on May 18-20 in Houston, TX. Kathy received a first and second such award in 2003 and 2008, respectively.

Since its inception in 1989, the Worldwide ERC® Service Recognition Awards Program has been honoring members who voluntarily share their time, talent and expertise through various contributions to the association. Members earn a Distinguished Service Award upon accumulating 25 service points.

Kathy Connelly earned the honor of a third award for her individual contributions to the organization, including service as a member of the US Advisory Council, numerous speaking engagements, conference moderator, task force and committee participation as well as leadership roles in such important initiatives as national and global conference planning. Kathy is one of only 443 members to have received the Distinguished Service Award since 1989, and one of only 73 who have received three such awards.

“For over 22 years, Kathy has demonstrated her leadership skills and dedication to create a world-class experience for her clients and our associates,” said Dan Forsman, president & CEO of Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Georgia Properties. “On behalf of our entire organization, we congratulate Kathy on this prestigious and well deserved honor by Worldwide ERC for her career accomplishments and contributions to the mobility industry. We are very proud to have her represent our organization.”

Since 1964, Worldwide ERC® has been the forum for bringing workforce mobility professionals together, and our success is a direct result of our collaboration. Worldwide ERC® is honored to congratulate and formally recognize those dedicated members for their contributions to that success.
