#GoodToKnow

Unprecedented open house access to the homes for sale of the historic Hague neighborhood of Ghent in Norfolk, VA.

Virginia Beach, VA (October 7, 2015) –Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Towne Realty presents “Norfolk’s Historic Hague Area Walking Tour of Homes”, as part of a multi-agency open house tour of homes for sale in the Hague neighborhood of Norfolk, Virginia. The open house tour will take place on Sunday, October 11, 2015 from 1 p.m. – 4 p.m.

This event is free and open to the public. The open house walking tour will feature William “Bill” Inge, renowned Norfolk architectural and building historian, as well as information about the arts and events that make the historic Hague unique to the Hampton Roads area. Information and walking tour maps will be available at each home on the tour.

The Hague, on the National Registry of Historical Places as part of the Ghent area of Norfolk, is a neighborhood built around the turn of the 20th century and features Dutch Queen Anne, Shingle Style and Colonial Revival homes that face the crescent shaped seawall along Mowbray Arch overlooking a body of water called the Hague.

“Norfolk’s Historic Hague Area Walking tour of Homes” includes the following properties: 580 Mowbray Arch (c.1907), 402 Warren Crescent (c.1904), 536 Fairfax Avenue (c.1902), 518 Pembroke Avenue (c.1901), 410 Fairfax Avenue (c.1901), 442 Mowbray Arch (c.1895), 516 Warren Crescent (c.1901) and 310 Fairfax Avenue.
